For his commitment to the community, his leadership within the bar, and his philanthropic impact, Texas Appleseed is proud to honor David with the 2019 J. Chrys Dougherty Good Apple Award.

PRO BONO LEADERSHIP AWARD RECIPIENTS

Texas Appleseed is pleased to present the 2019 Pro Bono Leadership Awards to two extraordinary attorneys who have worked tirelessly to not only meet the pro bono needs of Texans across the state, but also to elevate the importance of pro bono in the legal community.

Keri Brown, a partner at Baker Botts LLP, is an ardent supporter of Texas Appleseed whose extensive knowledge, efficiency, and passion aided us immensely as the team leader behind the production of our online toolkit for financial caregivers. Brown continues to support Texas Appleseed at every turn, frequently raising awareness of our work to other firms and companies.

Ellyn Haikin Josef, Pro Bono Counsel at Vinson & Elkins LLP, is a constant advocate and fantastic friend to Texas Appleseed. Josef's devotion to providing equal access to justice through pro bono initiatives is an essential element to organizations like ours, including the crucial work of helping with Hurricane Harvey recovery and youth homelessness policy reports.

ABOUT US

Texas Appleseed is a public interest justice center that works to change unjust laws and policies that prevent Texans from realizing their full potential. We anchor a dynamic network of pro bono partners and collaborators. Together, we develop and advocate for innovative and practical solutions to complex issues. We make this possible by conducting data-driven research to uncover inequity in laws and policies, and then identify solutions for lasting change. Our projects include dismantling the school-to-prison pipeline, payday and auto title lending reform, foster care reform, encouraging diversity in the legal profession, improving lives through disaster recovery and fair housing opportunities, and criminal justice reform, among other issues. When justice is beyond reach, Texas Appleseed provides the ladder.

ABOUT THE DINNER

Each year since 2002, Texas Appleseed has honored leaders for their contributions to the community at our Good Apple Dinner. The Board of Directors awards the J. Chrys Dougherty Good Apple Award as our highest recognition to luminaries that have helped shape Texas for the better and whose work has inspired us all. Appleseed has honored many amazing Texans, from Charles Butt to Wallace B. Jefferson to Harriet Miers, and most recently, Robin Gibbs.

We also present our Pro Bono Leadership Award to individuals and firms who have provided much-needed pro bono service to Texas Appleseed on urgent issues. These firms have offered critical help to Texas families and individuals who didn't know where else to turn. Our annual gala also allows us to recognize other groups and individuals with special recognition awards for the important work they've done in their communities and across Texas.

The Good Apple Dinner is successful in furthering our justice work because of the integral support of major institutions, law firms and countless individuals who want to see positive change in Texas. The dinner is a who's who of Texas, attended by attorneys from major law firms, judges and chief justices, other local and statewide public officials, university leaders, corporate leaders, and many other committed individuals. We thank our supporters for their continued pursuit of justice.

The Good Apple Dinner is also just a plain good time. It's a time to reconnect with old friends and make new connections, all while helping further justice for all Texans.
